Working 9 to 5

- ▶ Discuss opinions, advantages, and disadvantages of jobs
- ▶ Compare various jobs

1 SNAPSHOT

What do you want from your career?

Security

If you want to have stability, choose a job that you can keep for your whole life. You could be a federal judge, a public school teacher, or a university professor.

Adventure

Perhaps you can't picture yourself doing the same thing, at the same place, for years and years. In that case, be something that will allow you to explore other places and other cultures, like an environmentalist or a tour guide.

Money

Do you want to have a high-paying job? You may want to look into being a financial analyst, a doctor, or a stockbroker.

Rank the factors from 1 (most important) to 3 (least important). Compare with a partner.
Which factors did you consider when you chose your present job or your future career? Why?

2 PERSPECTIVES Career choices

- ▶ A Listen to students discuss career choices. Do you agree or disagree?
Check (✓) the speaker you agree with more.

I'd like to work in the video game industry. Playing games all day would be lots of fun.	I disagree! Playing the same game every day for months would be boring.	Designing clothes is not a man's job. Women are much more fascinated by fashion.
Being a flight attendant sounds very exciting. Traveling all the time would be really interesting.	But flight attendants get tired of traveling. They spend most of their time in airports!	That's not true! Many great fashion designers are men. Just look at Michael Kors!

- B Compare your responses with your classmates. Give more reasons to support your opinions.

I'd enjoy working with animals. I think working as a veterinarian could be rewarding.	I'm not so sure. Animals can be very unpredictable. Getting a dog bite would be scary!

5 SPEAKING Career paths

GROUP WORK Talk about a career you would like to have. Use information from Exercises 1–4 or your own ideas. Other students ask follow-up questions.

- A: I'd enjoy working as a guidance counselor.
B: Why is that?
A: Helping kids must be really rewarding.
C: Where would you work?
A: Well, I think I'd like to work at a high school. I enjoy working with teens.

6 WRITING What's more satisfying?

- A GROUP WORK What would you choose: a job that you love that doesn't pay well, or a high-paying job that you don't like? Discuss and list the consequences of the two alternatives.

- B Use the list to write a paragraph justifying your choice.

Having a high-paying job that you don't like could be very frustrating. First of all, you'd have to do something you don't like every day. You would have a lot of money. However, it's not worth it if...

- C PAIR WORK Read your partner's paragraph. Do you agree or disagree? Why or why not?

7 CONVERSATION It doesn't pay as much.

- A Listen and practice.

Tyler: Guess what? ... I've found a summer job!

Emma: That's great! Anything interesting?

Tyler: Yes, working at a beach resort.

Emma: Wow, that sounds fantastic!

Tyler: So, have you found anything?

Emma: Nothing yet, but I have a couple of leads. One is working as an intern for a news website – mostly answering emails and posts from readers. Or I can get a job as a camp counselor again.

Tyler: Being an intern sounds more challenging than working at a summer camp. You could earn college credits, and it's probably not as much work.

Emma: Yeah, but the internship doesn't pay as much as the summer camp job. Do they have another opening at the beach resort? That's the kind of job I'd really enjoy.

- B Listen to the rest of the conversation. What is Tyler going to do at the resort?

Would you be a good party planner? Go to Interchange 2 on page 115.

13 READING

- A Skim the web posts. Which person works in the most traditional workplace? the least traditional?

THE PERFECT WORKPLACE?

What is your workplace like? Tell us and see how other places compare!

My workplace is cooler than any office I've ever seen. Working here is really stimulating. I share a table with my co-workers, and the workplace is flooded with light. Getting free meals is great, and there are relaxing activities like billiards and board games. Plus we get a membership to a local gym! It isn't all play, of course – we work very hard – but the perks make it better than any other job I can imagine.

Lauren L., Palo Alto, California

When I got my job as a project manager for a finance company in London, I imagined a modern building with views of the city and open workspaces. When I arrived for my first day, I was pretty surprised. I found a typical cubicle farm, with desks as far as the eye could see. It works for me, though. I can concentrate in my own space and then talk with colleagues in the meeting rooms. We do have a great gym on the ground floor, so that's a bonus!

Catherine D., London, UK

I work in a research laboratory at a botanical garden. Working in a lab isn't as tedious as it sounds. That's because a lot of my work takes place in the greenhouses or outdoors. I love spending time among plants, and I enjoy working with other scientists who share my interests. True, the workplace isn't very luxurious. We have a tiny break room that some people complain about, and there isn't a place to work out or anything, but being outdoors so much makes up for the disadvantages.

Mark T., Bronx, New York

- B Read the web posts. Who would have written these sentences about their workplace? Write the names.

- Working in different environments keeps me from getting bored.
- It's a perfect environment for sharing new ideas with co-workers.
- There's nothing unique about it, but it's fine for the kind of work we do.
- Visitors might get the idea that we don't take our work seriously.
- Some employees are dissatisfied with the workplace, but I don't mind it.
- I love being able to exercise without leaving the building.

- C Find the words below in the web posts. Then complete the sentences with the words.

stimulating perk cubicle tedious luxurious

- One _____ of my job is that we get free tickets to cultural and sporting events.
- Working with creative people is very _____ because we can share lots of great ideas!
- The disadvantage of working in a _____ is that you can hear everything that's going on around you.
- The marketing director's office is very _____, with beautiful furniture and valuable paintings.
- Working with numbers all day seems _____ to some people, but I enjoy it.

- D PAIR WORK Which of the workplaces would you like the best? What features of a workplace matter most to you?
