A Scan the article. Which hotel has a room that looks like a dessert?

TRAVELNEWS Unique Hotels Which do you like – the world of science or the world of fiction? In this week's vacation post, we discover a hotel made for fans of nature and another hotel for fans of stories

Just imagine sleeping in a giant, clear bubble in a forest. That's exactly what happens here. At night, hotel guests lie in bed and watch the stars and moon. Each bubble has a comfortable bed and a nice bathroom with a shower. There's also an air-conditioner to keep the room cool in summer and a heater to keep it warm when it's cold outside.

Each bubble room is different. Guests choose the "Zen" bubble if they want to feel relaxed. Or they stay in the "Love Nature" bubble for a beautiful view. Sometimes there are rabbits and squirrels playing outside. Is there anything missing? Well, yes, there isn't a TV because no one needs a TV in a bubble!

The Roxbury, New York, the United States 4 new 0

In the mountains near New York City, there's a very unusual hotel. Its name is the Roxbury. It has many rooms, but every single room is different. There's the Wizard's Emeralds room, for example. It has a yellow "road" in the middle - just like in The Wizard of Oz. There's a green shower in the bathroom with big red flowers on the walls.

Maryann's Coconut Cream Pie room looks just like a dessert bed is round like a pie. whipped cream.

Do you like sweet things? How about space?

When you walk into George's Spacepad, you see an enormous red bathtub. It glows in the dark! good enough to eat! The There isn't a shower, but there are silver curtains, crazy lights, and and the ceiling looks like two cozy sofas. It's really out of this world!
